The Centre for Indian Music Experience (IME), India's first interactive music museum, will be a unique, first-of-its-kind arts centre coming up in JP Nagar, Bangalore. Educative and culturally enriching, IME will give visitors a opportunity to understand and experience India's rich and varied musical heritage. In the process, we hope it will encourage and inspire creativity through music.

This is an initiative of the Indian Music Experience Trust (IMET), a non-profit registered charitable organisation dedicated to the propagation of arts and culture.

A passionate group of dedicated professionals is working tirelessly to bring the IME to fruition, including:

Manasi Prasad – Project Director, IME
Dr. Suma Sudhindra – Director-Outreach, IME
Gallagher and Associates – Exhibit design
Shubha Mudgal – Content Consultant and many more...

The IME is guided by an advisory Board consisting of eminent personalities such as Dr. L. Subramaniam, Prof. C. N. R. Rao and Capt. Gopinath.
